

Joy Romano (husband Pete Romano)
1633 North Weber
635-4083

were owners of the Glen Elve Motel
at 3431 West Colorado Ave in 1969 + 1970.

Said A man came in on March 30,
1970 and registered under James Munday, giving an address of 35 Maple Ave - Moscow, N.Y.

party was 6'-6'1", 190 lbs, dark hair, very good looking, wearing ski sweater (bright colors), and poss. dark pants.

Registered for ~~2~~ people, crossed it out + put 3 people + only one ended up staying in the room

Said he would have to cash a check before he could pay AS the motel would not accept A personal check + he said he had no traveler's checks, then the next morning he started to leave without paying and Mrs. Romano caught him & asked for her money. He paid with a travelers check, however, the name on the traveler's check was not James Munday. She could not remember the name on the check.

Said he was driving a V.W. sedan and didn't write the license number of the vehicle on the registration card. She went out & copied WM-2503, but does not have the state, or colors of the plate.

said he acted like a "wild man" and her husband thought he was on drugs.

She said she is sure this party is Theodore Bundy after seeing his picture.